Questions

TO CONSIDER

1. What stood out to you as you listened to the message today? How did it impact you and what did you learn?

2. John is a personal letter where John expresses joy in seeing others walking in the truth (3 John 1:3-4). How does our shared faith in Jesus create a deep bond of fellowship among believers? What are some ways we can encourage one another to stay rooted in the truth of Christ?

3. John contrasts Gaius' faithfulness with Diotrephes, who rejected godly authority and sought to elevate himself (3 John 1:9-10). How does pride threaten unity and fellowship within the church? What are some ways we can guard against a self-focused attitude and instead promote unity and humility in our relationships with other believers?
